

Mickey the ferret took a London train

On the 22nd March 2011, Mickey was found in Edinburgh Haymarket at 7 pm. He got there by train, he left from London.

Mickey the ferret

Mickey the ferret was found on a train; he had left from London. On the 22nd March 2011 Mickey arrived at Edinburgh at 7 pm (platform 4). We think that he escaped from home.

By Ahmed W. 7t

Senior Inspector Jenny Scott stated: "When I arrived to collect the ferret my staff had managed to catch him and put him in a box. "We would love to return him but he has lost his owner". Mickey is now being cared for, at a rehoming animal centre at Balerno.